

A planning information request provides you with planning information about a specific property.

Written planning advice offers information about the planning controls that may impact your land. The information we provide considers the relevant planning zones and overlays and offers tailored advice on whether a planning permit is required for a proposed use or development.

The written response will be subject to the details provided with this application. Scaled fees apply, depending on the complexity of the proposal and the resources required to provide an informed response.

Do you require a detailed response? Yes No (Please note that additional fees apply - see our Fee Schedule)
For example: additional advice on permit requirements and planning permit history.
